

Franchise Advantages

Extremely high rate of success when compared to non-franchise businesses.

Franchisors have a vested interest in your success.

The marketplace has already been checked out by the franchisor and determined the system to be successful.

The franchisor may utilize collective buying power and pass these discounts on to you.

Supervision, training programs and consulting are readily available from the franchisor.

Managerial, operational and accounting systems are in place to facilitate your success.

Ongoing research and product development is provided by the franchisor.